

Jordanian-Slovak business center presentation

Thursday, 10. December 2009

In the presence of SARIO CEO Juraj Kiesel, the Honorary Consul of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan in the Slovak Republic Mr. Stefan Ziak, the director of the Jordanian Slovak Business Center (JSBC) Mr. Riad Kayyali, representatives of the Ministry of the Economy of the Slovak Republic, Eximbank and over thirty Slovak business subjects, the presentation of services of the newly established business center with the seat in Amman took place.

SARIO CEO said the JSBC will serve to support Slovak products in Jordan and consequently as well in the neighboring Arab countries (Lebanon, Syria, and Egypt) and it will also cover the countries of the Persian Gulf (GCC countries). "This is pilot project and if it is proven successful, we want to continue these activities with the perspective to open 4 -5 similar business centers in other attractive territories," Juraj Kiesel added.

The Honorary Consul of the Jordan in Slovakia said that JSBC is already registered as a non - profit organization that will cover also an exhibition room for Slovak products in Amman. "Until the half of February we would like to sign agreements with the companies interested in the services of the business center with the planned opening in March," the Honorary Consul said and also announced that the monthly fee for the services will be 130 EUR, while they will also invoice 3% off signed contracts.
